

I have heard you whining
about doing your school work lately. The elves are homeschooled too. We love it!
We do not whine! Obeying your mommy when it's time to learn is very important to Santa! No more whining about school time!

Your Elf,

"Do all things without complaining and disputing..."
Phillipians 2:14
