

Dear friends,

The time has come for me to say good-bye. I'll pack things up, and to the North Pole I'll fly.

Tonight, as I go--there is just one thing I need you to know.

Elves and Santa are fun and bring good cheer, but there is only One you must remember this time of year.

Jesus came to this earth as a baby. Did you learn a little of this at church, maybe?

You may be an elf, a girl, or a boy. A mommy, a daddy, or even Uncle Roy. No matter your name, Jesus loves us the same.

So in the morning when you excite over your toys, remember to REJOICE over Him, who came to save girls and boys.

See you next year. Shine for Jesus everyday!

Your Elf
